

Meet the Staff

Cultural Services Coordinator

Linda Pease

Linda Terry Pease is the cultural Services Coordinator for the City of Huntsville. A graduate of Southern Methodist University, Linda has managed projects and programming for the City of Huntsville: library, recreation, downtown revitalization and its community arts center- The Wynne Home Arts Center. Linda has received awards including Manager of the year award in the City, Award for Outstanding Contribution to Community Arts in Texas by the Texas Alliance for Education and the Arts; state-wide recognition for service to children. She has written and administered grants to support the arts, the Wynne Home Arts Center, downtown and the city recreation program. She is the staff advisor for the Huntsville Arts Commission and serves on the Advisory Board for the Community Engagement Center at the University

Administrative Assistant

Lauren Clay

Lauren Clay received her B.A. in Ceramics and Photography from McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana. She attended graduate school at Wichita State University in Wichita, Kansas where she earned an M.F.A. in Ceramics. Clay has been an artist in residence at the Kansas City Art Institute in Kansas City, Missouri, and at the Armory Art Center in West Palm Beach, Florida. She has also worked at many museums of note including the Nelson-Atkins Museum, Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art, and the Ulrich Museum of Art. As a new resident of Huntsville, Texas, Lauren is enjoying learning the history of our city and getting to know the people of the Piney Woods Region. In addition to her position as Cultural Services Administrative Assistant, she is also an Adjunct Professor of Ceramics at Sam Houston State University.

Wynne Home Intern

Jasmine Moss

Jasmine Moss, a political science major at Sam Houston State University, is serving as the Fall Wynne Home Intern. After graduating, she plans to attend law school and become a more active politician who believes in protecting our constitutional rights. As the Fall 2015 Wynne Home intern, Jasmine hopes to learn more about and become active within the cultural district, and discover new ways to make the Wynne Home events an unforgettable experience for the citizens of Huntsville.

Jasmine is a member of SHSU Kats In Support of Shelters, where she has served as Secretary and Vice President, and she is the current Public Relations Chair for SHSU Program Council. Jasmine is an active volunteer at The Rita B. Huff Humane Society, The Main Street Program, Samuel W. Houston Elementary, and other various local non-profit entities.

The Wynne Home
Arts Center

1428 Eleventh Street
Huntsville, TX 77340

Phone: 936-291-5424
Fax: 936-436-1363
www.TheWynneHome.com

The Wynne Home Arts Center envisions a world in which every person in our community is enriched and transformed by experiencing the arts in a setting that celebrates our collective heritage.

The Wynne Home Arts Center

Volume 1, Issue 1

September 15th, 2015

A WORD FROM THE WYNNE

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

Exhibits	2
Fall Classes	2
Promotional Items	2
Photos	3
Meet our staff	4

Upcoming Events:

- Fair on the Square - Oct. 3rd
- Fall Classes - Register now!
- Day of the Dead Reception - Oct. 23rd
- Scare on the Square - Oct. 31st
- H2O in Concert - Nov. 7th
- No Foolin' String Band Concert - Nov. 14th

LAUNCHING A NEWSLETTER

The Wynne Home Arts Center is proud to present "A Word from the Wynne" Newsletter. With great consideration, we are making efforts to engage our friends and keep you updated with the latest Wynne Home activities. "A Word from the Wynne" will be delivered once a month via email or through USPS for subscribers who are new to technology. In this issue, you will meet the staff, learn about previous events, the fall schedule, new promotional items, and activities you may have missed during the summer. Future issues will include, with some variation: Classes, exhibits, upcoming events, and photographs. Subscribers will obtain priority to

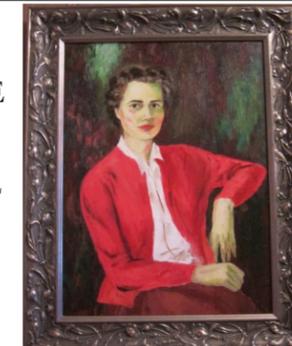

Landscape of the Wynne Home Arts Center

promotional items, free prizes, and more! We at The Wynne Home are excited and looking forward to hearing your feedback regarding "A Word from the Wynne." Interested subscribers who are not on our email or mailing list can call 936-291-5424 or visit www.thewynnehome.com/list.aspx to get connected!

PORTRAITS OF THE
WYNNE SISTERS
NOW HANG IN THE
WYNNE HOME
ARTS CENTER

WYNNE DID THAT HAPPEN?

FALL CLASSES

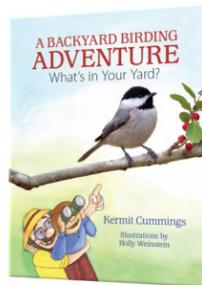

It's that time of year again!! Registration for fall classes has begun. Classes will span six weeks beginning October 12th and ending November 21st. Offered courses will include Calligraphy, Silk Painting, Mommy & Me, Pottery, Oil Painting, Modern Painting, and more! For information regarding registration and the class schedule, please see the attached brochure or call 936-291-5424.

Photo-op during Early Bird Art Camp.

"A Backyard Birding Adventure" Book Signing

Have you ever wondered what's been chirping in your backyard? If so, then "A Backyard Birding Adventure" is the book for you. Kermit Cummings, the author of the children's book, hosted a book signing where he introduced well-known birds and an app that allows you to hear bird sounds. Cummings gave away stylish pens to the first ten children that arrived and to every purchaser. Books will be sold in the Wynne Home gift shop.

NEW PROMOTIONAL ITEMS

The Wynne Home will be giving away its latest promotional item. Pick up your bag beginning Thursday, October 6th, 2015.

AREA ARTISTS SHOW: LIBERTIES

On September 5th local professional and non-professional artist submitted artwork for the exhibit, "Liberties." The opening reception was held on September 17, 2015 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., and a talk on "LIBERTIES" with Barbra Sloan at 5:30 p.m. Artwork will remain in The Wynne Home and open for public viewing through January 9th, 2016.

SEMONE ROBINSON'S 20 YEAR RETROSPECTIVE

On September 4th, Semone Robinson celebrated 20 years of glittery art. Family and friends gathered in celebration at Crazywood Art Center as Robinson gave thanks to God and her supporters. Semone's artwork will be featured in galleries in Houston, Texas and New York, New York.

PREVIOUS EVENT PHOTOS

It was a great summer at the Wynne Home: Early Bird Art camp was a blast; we brought Hawaii to Huntsville; and have hosted many exciting tours!

Sculpture and clay for kids

Paper-Mache

Crafts and Gardening

Semone Robinson during 20 year Retrospective

Hula Dancers at The Wynne Home Luau

Like us on Facebook

@TheWynne Home Arts Center

Follow us on Instagram

@TheWynneHome

Check out our website

www.thewynnehome.com