WYNNE DID THAT HAPPEN?

HEART OF HUNTSVILLE

The Center for Law Engagement and Politics (LEAP) implemented tours in which they acknowledged and admired art throughout the City of Huntsville. An estimate of thirty people embarked on this four-week journey of touring with some of the local artists such as Dan Phillips, Lee Jamison, David Adickes, and others. On the final night, the Friends of the Wynne sponsored a fall dinner, prepared by Sharon Rose. Mike Yawn gave many thanks to everyone who contributed to making this first, of what is hoped to be annual, tour a success. Anina Moore, Director of Communications for Texas Commission on the Arts, also joined the group for their final night. She sang praises of a wonderful program and informed every one of the new Texas Art Commission Grant. Good luck to the Huntsville Cultural District!

SHSU College of Fine Arts - 2nd annual Art Gala

During the second annual celebration of the art community Gala, Micheal Henderson, Chair of the art department, welcomed all friends of the arts to join in on recognizing Huntsville's artists. Linda Pease, cultural services director, gave loving acknowledgment to our resting friends Barbara Tyson, Jesus Morales, Stuart Krapf, and Jim Carter, who are gone but not forgotten. Dan Phillips, founding director of Phoenix Commotion, received an award for his inevitable, outstanding support of the arts. He gave many thanks to his loving wife, Marsha Phillips, who has always supported him and given valuable critiques to his ideas. Among other substantial recognitions were Kim Cook as outstanding young alumna and Dan Pratt as an outstanding alumnus.
