

These are just a few of the databases that are found at www.MyHuntsvilleLibrary.com

Get connected:

Book not on our shelf?
Download it on OverDrive!

Text (936) 274-7204 to connect with your virtual librarian, Gabbie!
You can renew items, get a summary of the items you have out, or just ask a question and a library staff member will be able to respond.

Huntsville Public Library

HuntsvillePublicLibrary

Huntsville_public_library

@HuntsvilleLib

Huntsville Public Library

*Transforming Lives,
Enriching Families,
Building Community*

1219 13th Street
Huntsville, TX 77340

(936) 291-5472
Fax (936) 291-5918

MyHuntsvilleLibrary.com

FAQ's

How much does a library card cost?

⇒ Nothing. They are FREE!

How do I get a library card?

⇒ You need to bring a state issued I.D. along with a current piece of mail addressed to you. Children under the age of 18 must have a parent or legal guardian sign for them.

⇒ Persons living at the same address are grouped together as a household.

Where are you located?

⇒ We are on 13th Street between Sam Houston Avenue and Avenue M .

When are you open?

⇒ Monday — Friday 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

⇒ Saturday — 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

How do I check out items or use the computer at the library?

⇒ All patrons are required to have a library card with them in order to checkout items or use the computers.

Is there a limit to what I can check out?

⇒ Five DVDs per household.

⇒ Five audiobooks per card.

⇒ No more than 25 total items per card.

How long can I keep the items?

⇒ Books, audiobooks, and magazines check out for 2 weeks (14 days).

⇒ DVDs and music CDs check out for 1 week (7 days).

Can I access the Internet from the computer lab and is there a charge?

⇒ Internet access is free; however, it does cost 15 cents per page to print. Only black and white copies are available. We also have free WiFi.

What if I'm late returning my items?

⇒ Book, Magazine and Music CD fines are 10¢ per day per item.

⇒ DVD and Audiobook fines are $1 per day per item.

⇒ Items more than 30 days late are considered lost and must be paid for, including a $10 processing fee.

⇒ If any member of a household has a fine, no one in that household will be allowed to check out items until the fine is paid.

What if the item I want is checked out?

⇒ We can put the item on reserve for you, or you can go online and place a reserve yourself. When the book is available, we'll contact you.

What if you don't have the item I want?

⇒ If you've had your library card for 30 days and are in good standing, we can do an Interlibrary Loan—request the book from another library—as long as the book is more than six months old and not on the bestseller list. We will notify you when the book becomes available.

⇒ An item may be considered for purchase if it meets the library selection criteria.

Can I extend my loan period?

⇒ If the item is not on reserve for someone else, you may renew your items by texting “Renew All” to (936) 274-7204 or by accessing your account online through our website: MyHuntsvilleLibrary.com or by calling us at 291-5472.

What activities does the Library offer?

The Huntsville Public Library offers a range of programs and classes for all ages. The library has something for everyone including Story Time, Computer classes, Spanish classes, the Summer Reading Program, Genealogy courses, and Literacy programs. Visit MyHuntsvilleLibrary.com for more information.

What special resources do you have?

We have an extensive genealogy collection to help you find your family roots. Our collection includes many books; cemetery, marriage, and birth records; the Huntsville Item dating back to 1853; Bible and surname records; and Texas Department of Criminal Justice's Texas Convict Records. You can access Ancestry.com Library Edition from our computers in the Genealogy room for free.

Thanks to the Texas State Library and Archive Commission, library patrons can access the following through TexShare:

- Professional Journals
- Dictionaries, Encyclopedias, Magazines
- Newspapers
- Online Tutorials
- Access to 30+ databases such as:

Learning Express Library: Test Preparation Materials for the ACT, SAT, GED, vocational tests, and computer training.

Consumer Health Complete: Material related to health concerns.

Explora: Homework and study help for students.

And More: Legal Forms, Auto Repair Manuals, Business Reference, Research tools, etc.